Background Notes

A Census of Population was taken on the night of Sunday, 10 April 2011, in accordance with the Statistics (Census of Population) Order 2010 (S.I. No. 207 of 2010)<sup>1</sup>. An extract from the census questionnaire is reproduced at appendix 6.

This publication presents the population classified by sex for the different territorial divisions of the country. The areas are those in force at the date of the 2011 Census of Population and are defined in Appendices 1 - 4. This publication complements Profile 1 – Town and Country (at www.cso.ie/census).

Other topics will be covered in further Profile reports to be released throughout 2012, and in two summary publications, This is Ireland – Highlights from Census 2011, Part 1 (published in March 2012) dealing with demographic factors, and This is Ireland – Highlights from Census 2011, Part 2 (due in June 2012) which will cover socio-economic themes.

Coverage of the Census

The census figures relate to the de facto population i.e. the population recorded for each area represents the total of all persons present within its boundaries on the night of Sunday, 10 April 2011, together with all persons who arrived in that area on the morning of Monday, 11 April 2011, not having been enumerated elsewhere. Persons on board ships in port are included with the population of adjacent areas. The figures, therefore, include visitors present on Census Night as well as those in residence, while usual residents temporarily absent from the area are excluded.

The date of the census was chosen to coincide with a period when passenger movements were at a minimum and, consequently, the figures closely approximate to those for the normally resident population. Members of the Defence Forces who, on Census Night, were serving abroad with the United Nations were excluded from the enumeration.

Conduct of the Census

A temporary field force consisting of 6 Census Liaison Officers, 44 Regional Supervisors, 438 Field Supervisors and some 4,854 part-time enumerators carried out the census enumeration. During the four weeks before Census Day the enumerators entered details in respect of 2 million private residences and communal establishments in their enumerator record books. They simultaneously delivered blank census questionnaires to 1.65 million of these dwellings that were expected to be occupied on Census Night. Approximately 290,000 residences were vacant at the time of the census, while in the remaining cases the household was either enumerated elsewhere or temporarily absent from the State. The collection of completed questionnaires took place between Monday 11 April and Friday 13 May, 2011.

The Central Statistics Office (CSO) wishes to record its appreciation of the public-spirited co-operation received from households and the work carried out by the census field force.

Production of results

Each enumerator first prepared and returned to the CSO a summary of the population of his/her enumeration area. These summaries formed the basis for the preliminary 2011 census results published in June 2011. The completed questionnaires for individual households were subsequently transported to the CSO for processing. The population summaries, dwelling listings and enumeration maps for individual enumeration areas were checked for consistency and used to determine the boundaries of census towns and suburbs / environs of towns with legal boundaries. The capture and processing of the responses to questions on the questionnaires proceeded concurrently.

Publication of Results

The planned publication schedule is contained in Appendix 5. The schedule includes two summary reports which will present highlight results primarily for the state. The first one, This is Ireland - Part 1, (published in March 2012) looks at overall population change by county; it also examines age, marriage, households and families as well as including first results on nationality, foreign languages, the Irish language, religion and housing. The second summary report, This is Ireland - Part 2, (coming in June) will look at other social and economic factors such as employment, occupations, education and skills as well as travel and health-related topics. A further ten profile reports will provide more detailed results on individual topics; the details are listed in the publication schedule.

Census Geographic Definitions

Introduction

There are many different territorial divisions of the country used in the Census. The most important of these are defined below using the definitions as they existed on the 10 April 2011.

Small Areas (SAs)

Small Areas are a relatively recent geographic concept compiled by the National Institute of Regional and Spatial Analysis (NIRSA) on behalf of the Ordnance Survey Ireland (OSi) and in consultation with the CSO. They were designed as the lowest level of geography for the compilation of statistics in line with data protection guidelines and typically contain between 50 and 200 dwellings. A further constraint imposed when creating these new areas was that they nested within Electoral Division boundaries. Finally they are generally comprised where possible of complete townlands or neighbourhoods.

Electoral Divisions (EDs)

Electoral Divisions are the smallest legally defined administrative areas in the state.

Previously known as District Electoral Divisions<sup>2</sup>(DEDs), ED's began as sub-divisions of poor law unions, grouping one or more townlands together to elect members to a Board of Guardians. The DED boundaries were drawn by a Poor Law Boundary Commission, with the intention of producing areas of roughly equal "rateable value" as well as population. EDs are mostly contiguous but may bear little relation to natural community boundaries.

There are 3,440 legally defined EDs in the State. One ED, St. Mary's, straddles the Louth-Meath county border, and split along the county border is presented in two parts in this publication. For the purposes of detailed ED Small Area Population tables (SAPs), 32 EDs with a low population have been amalgamated with neighbouring EDs for disclosure reasons giving the total of 3,409 EDs which will appear in the SAPS tables later in 2012.

Urban and Rural Districts

Electoral Divisions were aggregated to give Legal Towns/Cities<sup>3</sup> (for clarity termed Urban Districts in this report) and Rural Districts. Counties are agglomerations of Urban and Rural Districts. The Rural Districts, which numbered 160, were abolished as administrative areas in 1925 (1930 in the case of Rural Districts in County Dublin) but have been retained for census purposes as convenient units of area, intermediate in size between Electoral Divisions and Counties. In the case of County Dublin it is not possible to compile Rural District figures because of extensive revisions that have taken place in the boundaries of Electoral Divisions over the years. Population figures for Urban and Rural Districts are given in Table 6 in this report.

Counties and Cities

Under the Local Government Act, 2001 (S.I. 591 of 2001), the areas formerly known as County Boroughs are now called Cities. Areas formerly known as Municipal Boroughs are now called Boroughs. The area of North Tipperary Riding and South Tipperary Riding are now known as North Tipperary and South Tipperary, respectively.

In census reports the country is divided into 29 Counties/administrative counties and the five Cities. Outside Dublin there are 26 administrative counties (North Tipperary and South Tipperary each ranks as a separate county for administrative purposes) and four Cities, i.e. Cork, Limerick, Waterford and Galway. In Dublin the four local authority areas are identified separately, i.e. Dublin City and the three Administrative Counties of Dún Laoghaire-Rathdown, Fingal and South Dublin.

The boundaries of the Cities are subject to periodic extensions to keep pace with building development and it is not possible, therefore, to show comparable retrospective population figures over an extended period. Counties, on the other hand, have only been affected to a very minor extent by boundary changes and it is possible to compare county populations (including the appropriate Cities) over a long period of time. This is done in Table 2, which shows county population figures for each census year from 1841 to 2011.

<sup>3</sup>A complete list of extensions to Town boundaries made by Government Orders is given in Appendix 3 in the Population Classified by Area report.

Since 2006 the boundary of Limerick City was amended by S.I. No. 53/2008 — Limerick City Boundary Alteration Order 2008 transferring the Limerick North Rural Electoral Division from Limerick County to the Limerick City

Dáil Constituencies

For the purpose of elections to Dáil Éireann the country is divided into Constituencies which, under Article 16.4 of the Constitution of Ireland, have to be revised at least once every twelve years with due regard to changes in the distribution of the population. The Constituencies were last revised in 2009 and the Schedule to the Electoral (Amendment) (No.4) Act 2009 contains details of their composition. The 2011 population figures for these areas are given in Table 8.

Local Electoral Areas

For the purposes of County Council and Corporation elections each county and city is divided into Local Electoral Areas (LEAs) which are constituted on the basis of Orders made under the Local Government Act, 1941. In general, LEAs are formed by aggregating Electoral Divisions. However, in a number of cases Electoral Divisions are divided between LEAs to facilitate electors. Population figures for Local Electoral Areas are given in Table 9. This table reflects the current composition of these LEAs as established by Statutory Instruments No's 427-452/2008, 503-509/2008 and 311/1998.

Legal and Census Towns

For census purposes towns fall into two types, namely those with legally defined boundaries called "Legal Towns" and those without legally defined boundaries called "Census Towns".

Legal Towns

Towns with legally defined boundaries consist of:

- The five Cities Cork, Dublin, Galway, Limerick and Waterford;
- five Boroughs Clonmel, Drogheda, Kilkenny, Sligo and Wexford;
- 75 Towns.

A list of all towns with legally defined boundaries is given in Appendix 2.

In the case of legally defined towns CSO compile population figures for the area within the legal town boundary. However, urban development in most of these legal towns has expanded beyond their legally defined boundaries. As a result large numbers of persons in the communities for which these towns are the nuclei would be excluded if the coverage of the town were confined strictly to legally defined boundaries. This problem tends to become more pronounced from one census to the next as urban areas extend further into the surrounding countryside. Revisions of the legally defined boundaries tend to lag behind urban development, as they are dependent on other factors besides the necessity of defining urban areas for Census of Population purposes.

Census geographic analysis is concerned with the overall size of population clusters and not simply with areas within legally defined boundaries. Consequently, where urban areas have extended beyond the legally defined town boundary, the CSO draws up new boundaries defining the suburban areas of Cities/Boroughs and environs of other legal towns for census purposes.

Suburban areas for Dublin City and Cork City were defined for the first time at the 1951 Census. For the 1956 Census all towns with legally defined boundaries were examined in co-operation with the Local Authorities concerned and where necessary, suburban areas or environs were defined for them for census purposes. The suburban boundaries were reviewed for each subsequent census.

From 1951 to 2006 Suburbs/environs were defined, in conformity with United Nations recommendations, as the continuation of a distinct population cluster outside its legally defined boundary in which no occupied dwelling is more than 200 metres distant from the nearest occupied dwelling. In applying the 200-metre criterion, industrial, commercial and recreational buildings and facilities are not regarded as breaking the continuity of a built-up area.

New suburbs or environs are defined only where there are at least twenty occupied dwellings outside the legal boundary within the new limit. In 2011 the distance criteria was reduced to 100 metres in line with the change in criteria used in defining Census Towns (see below).

Census Towns

From 1971 to 2006, Census towns were defined as a cluster of fifty or more occupied dwellings where, within a radius of 800 metres there was a nucleus of thirty occupied dwellings (on both sides of a road, or twenty on one side of a road), along with a clearly defined urban centre e.g. a shop, a school, a place of worship or a community centre. Census town boundaries were extended over time where there was an occupied dwelling within 200 metres of the existing boundary.

To avoid the agglomeration of adjacent towns caused by the inclusion of low density one off dwellings on the approach routes to towns, the 2011 criteria were tightened, in line with UN criteria.

In Census 2011 a new Census town was defined as being a cluster of 50 or more occupied dwellings, with a maximum distance between any dwelling and the building closest to it of 100 metres, and where there was evidence of an urban centre (shop, school etc). The proximity criteria for extending existing 2006 Census town boundaries was also amended to include all occupied dwellings within 100 metres of an existing building. Other information based on OSi mapping and orthogonal photography was also taken into account when extending boundaries. Boundary extensions were generally made to include the land parcel on which a dwelling was built or using other physical features such as roads, paths etc.

Legal town boundaries are defined by legal statute and these were strictly applied. Extensions to the Environs of legal towns were constructed using the 100 metre proximity rule applied to Census towns.

102 new census towns were created for the 2011 Census.

Historically for the censuses of 1926 to 1951 a census town was defined simply as a cluster of twenty or more houses and the precise delimitation of the town was left to the discretion of the individual enumerator concerned. As part of the general review of towns for the 1956 Census, the boundaries for the census towns were drawn up in consultation with the various Local Authorities applying uniform principles in all areas of the country. The definition of a census town was changed at the 1956 Census, from twenty houses to twenty occupied houses; this definition was also applied at the 1961 and 1966 Censuses.

The population of towns is given in Tables 5,7 and 12. Table 5 contains the total population of all towns and of their suburbs or environs where applicable, arranged in order of size within counties. An alphabetical list of all towns in the country, with their populations, is given in Table 12. In Table 7, towns of 1,500 population and over are arranged in size groups based on total population. Total population in this context means the population of the towns, inclusive of suburbs or environs, if any.

Aggregate Town and Aggregate Rural Areas

The term Aggregate Town Area (Tables 3, 4 and 7) refers to towns (including environs of legal towns) with a total population of 1,500 or more. The term Aggregate Rural Area refers to the population outside Aggregate Town areas and includes the population of towns with a population of less than 1,500 persons.

Gaeltacht Areas

The Gaeltacht Areas Orders, 1956, 1967, 1974 and 1982 defined the Gaeltacht as comprising 155 Electoral Divisions or parts of Electoral Divisions in the counties of Cork, Donegal, Galway, Kerry, Mayo, Meath and Waterford. The population of these Electoral Divisions or parts thereof in 2006 and 2011 is given in Table 10.

Islands off the Coast

The population in 2006 and 2011 of inhabited islands off the coast is shown in Table 11. In some cases the areas of land concerned may not, strictly speaking, be considered as islands since they are connected to the mainland by a causeway or bridge, or may be reached by land at low tide. However, they have been retained unchanged in the present publication in order to provide continuity with previous censuses.

GIS and digital boundaries for Census 2011

Due to changes to the fieldwork methodology, Census 2011 was the first census where each household and dwelling was linked to geographical co-ordinates (i.e. latitude and longitude or GPS co-ordinates). This linkage has the benefit of offering flexibility in the production of Census 2011 outputs for both existing and new boundaries provided they are available in digital format.

The boundaries for the various geographical areas referenced in this report have been digitised by Ordnance Survey Ireland (OSi). The exceptions to this were the boundaries of the census towns, extensions to existing towns and city suburbs, which were digitised by the CSO. The Census 2011 data was then geographically coded using these digital boundaries and a Geographical Information System (GIS).

Digital boundaries are available on www.cso.ie as vector files in ESRI shape (SHP) format for 18,488 Small Areas and 3,409 EDs along with their administrative counties. The boundaries have been smoothed in accordance with our licensing agreement with OSi. These boundaries are for general information and are not accurate enough for use in data geocoding. Any individual or organisation who wishes to download the boundaries must acknowledge the terms and conditions under which they are made available.

Area Measurement and Population Density

The measurement of area in square kilometres is shown in Table 6. The data for area calculation was provided by Ordnance Survey Ireland. The areas shown are exclusive of water bodies such as large rivers, lakes, estuaries, ponds and reservoirs. Population density is calculated as total persons divided by number of square kilometres.

Regional Authorities

The geographical sub-divisions used in Table 4 are based on Regional Authority Areas and correspond to the NUTS3 regions used by Eurostat. These eight regions were established under the Local Government Act, 1991, Regional Authorities Establishment Order, 1993 which came into operation on 1 January 1994. Two further Regional Authorities known as Regional Assemblies were established in 1999 under the Local Government Act, 1991, Regional Authorities Establishments Order, 1999 (S.I. 226 of 1999 refers). These assemblies are based on the Existing Regional Authority Structure and correspond to the NUTS2 regions used by Eurostat. They are groupings of the NUTS3 Regions as set out below.

Extensions to Legal Boundaries

Extensions to the boundaries of the following towns have been formally approved since the last census, in 2006:

Balbriggan Town - S.I. No. 18/2009
Navan (An Uaimh) Town - S.I. No. 137/2009
Shannon Town - S.I. No. 558/2008
Wexford Borough - S.I. No. 819/2007
Limerick City – S.I. No. 53/2008

Between the previous two censuses, in 2002 and 2006, the following towns were extended:

Letterkenny – S.I. 679 and 680 of 2003
Athlone – S.I. 704 and 705 of 2003

Explanatory Notes

Question H3 – Does your household own or rent your accommodation?

If you rent your accommodation (box 3), or live in it rent free (box 4), you should also answer the second part of the question 'who is your landlord?'. Select the appropriate box (1, 2 or 3) to indicate whether your landlord is a 'Private landlord', a 'Local Authority' or a 'Voluntary/Co-operative housing body', regardless of whether or not you pay all or part of the rent yourself, or if it is paid on your behalf by the HSE or any other body.

Question H4 – If your accommodation is rented, how much rent does your household pay?

If the HSE or any other body pays part of the rent, only the amount paid by the household should be entered. Enter the amount to the nearest Euro and mark the box corresponding to the period covered e.g. if your household pays a weekly rent of €78.60 enter 79 and mark box 1. If all of your rent is paid on your behalf enter 0 and mark box 1.

Question 4 – Relationship

The relationship question is designed to determine families within households. This includes where there are two or more families in the one household. For example, a household consisting of an adult daughter living with her two parents and her own child would be counted as a two family household.

The example given below shows how the question should be answered for the child in this situation, where the parents are Persons 1 and 2 on the form, the adult daughter is Person 3 and the child is Person 4.

Mark  one box only for each person.

Question 7 – Where do you usually live?

This question refers to your place of usual residence at the time of the Census. If you have lived at this address for a continuous period of at least 12 months before Census Night, or have arrived at this address in the 12 month period before Census Night with the intention of staying here for at least one year you should mark box 1 (HERE). If your usual residence is not here but is elsewhere in Ireland (including Northern Ireland) you should mark box 2 and write in your full address. If your usual residence is elsewhere abroad you should mark box 3 and give the country of usual residence.

The general guideline is that a person's place of usual residence is where he/she spends most of his/her daily night rest. The following specific guidelines should be used:

- Those away from home during the week who return to the family home at weekends should consider the family home as their place of usual residence.
- Primary and secondary students who are boarding away from home, and third level students at college or university, should consider the family home as their place of usual residence.
- If a person has spent or intends to spend 12 months or more in an institution then the institution is that person's place of usual residence.
- If a person regularly lives in more than one residence during the year then the place where he/she spends the majority of the year should be chosen as his/her place of usual residence.

Question 8 – Where did you usually live one year ago?

This question is for persons aged 1 year or over. The guidelines in relation to Question 7 also apply to this question. If your place of usual residence one year before the Census was the same as now you should mark box 1 (SAME as now).

Question 9 – Have you lived outside the Republic of Ireland for a continuous period of one year or more?

This question is for persons aged 1 year or over. If your place of usual residence is in the Republic of Ireland and you were either:

- born in this country and lived outside it for a continuous period of one year or more, or
- born abroad and lived outside Ireland for a continuous period of one year or more, then you should mark box 1 (Yes). You should also write in the year of last taking up residence in this country and the country of last previous residence.

Question 15 – Do you speak a language other than English or Irish at home?

If you do not speak a language other than English or Irish at home you should mark box 2 (No) and proceed to Question 16. This means those who speak only English and/or Irish at home do not have to report on their ability to speak the English language.

Question 16 – Do you have any of the following long-lasting conditions or difficulties?

For the purpose of this question a long lasting condition or difficulty is one which has lasted or is expected to last 6 months or longer, or that regularly re-occurs.

Question 22 – Do you provide regular unpaid personal help for a friend or family member with a long-term illness, health problem or disability?

If you provide regular unpaid help as a carer, regardless of whether or not you are in receipt of Carer's Allowance/Benefit, you should mark box 1 (Yes) and write in the weekly number of hours of caring.

Question 25 – What is the highest level of education/training (full-time or part-time) which you have completed to date?

The categories distinguished in this question follow the National Framework of Qualifications (NFQ). Further details can be found at www.nfq.ie

Further information on FETAC, HETAC, foreign qualifications and all other qualifications in general can be found at www.census.ie

Question 26 – What is the main field of study of the highest qualification you have completed to date?

This question is to capture post-secondary school qualifications only. If you have a number of qualifications, the field of study relating to the highest qualification only should be listed.

Question 27 – How would you describe your present principal status?

You should mark one box only to select the category which you feel best describes your present principal status. If you are on sick leave or maternity leave and intend to return to work at some stage you should mark box 1 (Working).

Question 34 – Address of place of work, school or college

Persons who leave the household to attend work, school or college should supply the full name and address of this place.

For children who attend pre-school facilities (e.g. crèche, kindergarten) outside the home, the full name and address of this facility should be supplied by the person filling in the form.
